

CloughJordan Circus Club Child Safeguarding Statement

1. Name of Service being provided: CloughJordan Circus Club
2. Nature of service and principles to safeguard children from harm

CloughJordan Circus Club is a youth arts organisation for youth and social circus, located in CloughJordan, (rural North Tipperary). Our aim is to advance the artistic, personal and social development of young people through circus arts. We are committed to creating an imaginative, inclusive learning experience where all young people can reach their full potential.

We work with young people aged 8 – 25 years. We carry out a range of activities including weekly classes, performances, rehearsals, trips and youth exchanges / gatherings. Circus skills taught include juggling, diabolo, hat manipulation, unicycle, tightwire, rola bola, acrobalance and pyramid building as well as clowning and performance skills.

Policy Statement

CloughJordan Circus Club is committed to a child-centred approach to our work with children and young people. It is central to the philosophy of CloughJordan Circus Club that children are unconditionally respected and kept safe from harm whilst engaging with staff/volunteers from CloughJordan Circus Club.

This statement is based on the Children First Act 2015 and Children First National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children 2017.

Our aim is to create a safe, creative and fun environment where children and young people can flourish. As a youth circus project that is in contact with young people through projects, classes and workshops we believe:

- The welfare of the child and the young person is paramount.
- Our guiding principles and procedures to safeguard children and young people reflect national policy and legislation and we will review our guiding principles and child safeguarding procedures every two years.
- All children and young people, whatever their age, culture, ability, gender, language, racial origin, religious beliefs and/or sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse.
- All suspicions and allegations of abuse should be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately.
- Staff and volunteers should be clear on how to respond appropriately.
- We are committed to upholding the rights of every child and young person who attends our service, including the rights to be kept safe and protected from harm, listened to and heard.
- Our guiding principles apply to everyone in our organisation.
- Staff/volunteers must conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of our organisation

3. Risk Assessment
